AV

Thomas A. Keller is the Hiring Partner at Butler. Based out of the Tampa office, his primary practice area is coverage defense. Tom handles mostly first-party property insurance coverage defense cases and extra-contractual matters.

Tom has been with Butler since 2003. Prior to joining our team, Tom practiced commercial and business litigation and was a senior staff attorney with the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit of Florida. Tom earned his law degree, cum laude, from Stetson University College of Law in 1998.

Tom is a recognized authority on property insurance coverage issues. He lectures on the subject and related issues often, including regulatory and legislative changes in condominium insurance coverage and Florida first-party property insurance laws, as well as adjusting sinkhole claims and fraud in natural disaster claims like sinkholes, hurricanes, and floods. He is a frequent speaker for various insurance companies and organizations like the South Florida Claims Association and the Property Loss Research Bureau.
