Steve Daglio is the General Adjuster at the Vermont Mutual Insurance Group specializing in medium to large complex claims throughout New England and New York. He started his career in 1982 with the General Adjustment Bureau (GAB) and has worked as an Independent Adjuster through 2013 when he joined Vermont Mutual.

Vermont Mutual is a proud supporter of the Independent Agents and Independent Adjusters throughout the territory. Steve trains and manages the Independent Adjusters in this network reviewing VMIC's protocols with new partners while expanding and maintaining relationships with existing firms and providers. Steve also works closely with the Independent Agents, Marketing and Underwriting along with legal counsel on coverage and strategies for settlement.
