

Rick Ainsworth completed a 43 year career with Indiana Farm Bureau Insurance in 2021 where he began as a Field Claim Representative and went on to hold various management and leadership positions including Director of Claims. Mr. Ainsworth is most proud of his time as Manager of Government Relations and Staff Development where he helped craft a unique multi-tiered development program for all levels of employees within his department. He represented Indiana Farm Bureau Insurance and the insurance industry at the Indiana Statehouse as an expert lobbyist on insurance matters. Mr. Ainsworth holds the Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) designation as well as Associate in Management (AIM) and Associate in Claims (AIC) designations. He has been recognized by the Insurance Institute of Indiana and the American Society of CPCU's. Currently Mr. Ainsworth is a Senior Consultant with Equis Consulting Inc., a firm specializing in Executive Management and Leadership development. He is certified in the Hogan Inventory. You may contact him at RCAinsworth@equisconsulting.com.