Rina Carmel is senior counsel at Anderson, McPharlin & Conners LLP in Los Angeles. Her practice focuses analysis of complex claims under CGL and other liability policies, as well as first-party property policies, and she counsels clients on claims handling. Rina also defends insurers against bad faith claims.

Rina is active in industry organizations, especially in publications and speaking. Her recent projects include overseeing preparation of the Defense Research Institute's Unfair Claims Settlement Practices Compendium (2018) and the Duty to Defend Compendium (2015). Both are 50-state surveys that provide guidance on key principles of insurance law.

Rina is admitted to practice before all California state courts, as well as the United States Supreme Court, the United States Court of Appeals for Ninth Circuit and all United States District Courts in California.

Rina is a foster home volunteer with Guardian Angels for Soldier's Pet, a civilian organization that finds foster homes for pets of military on deployment, or military and veterans with an emergency hardship.
