

DEBORAH E. GREENSPAN
(December 18, 2019)

Deborah E. Greenspan is a partner with Blank Rome LLP. She is a leading advisor on mass claims strategy and resolution. Her practice focuses on class actions, mass claims, dispute resolution, insurance recovery, and mass tort bankruptcy. She has extensive experience in mass product liability matters, analysis of damages and future liability exposure, alternative dispute resolution (“ADR”), claims evaluation and dispute analysis, settlement distribution design and implementation, claims management, and risk analysis. She has represented clients in some of the most significant complex litigation matters in the United States, advising the companies on strategic options and efficient resolution of pending or minimizing the risk of potential future mass claims. Representative clients include Dow Corning Corporation (n/k/a Dow Silicones Corporation), Pfizer Inc., Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corporation, Armstrong World Industries Inc., and Corning Incorporated.

Deborah has been appointed by judges and federal government institutions to serve as a Special Master both to analyze specific matters and to design and implement complex resolution programs. She is the Court-appointed Special Master in the Michigan Flint Water Cases. She served as the Court-appointed Special Master in the Agent Orange Product Liability Litigation, responsible for developing and implementing a settlement program to distribute funds to over 100,000 Vietnam veterans. She served as the Deputy Special Master for the September 11th Victim Compensation Fund of 2001 and, for more than 9 years, was responsible for conceiving the policies and for facilitating the distribution of over $9 billion to victims of the September 11 attacks. She has been appointed to serve as a Special Master in 13 lawsuits brought by victims of terrorist attacks under the state sponsor of terrorism exception to the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act.

Deborah is the Chair of the Dispute Resolution Committee of TIPS, the Tort Trial and Insurance Practice Section of the American Bar Association. She currently serves on several non-profit boards: the Board of Overseers for the RAND Institute of Civil Justice; the Board of the Academy of Court-Appointed Masters (ACAM); the Board of the National Law Center on Homelessness and Poverty. She served as a co-chair of the Mass Claims Commission of the International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution (“CPR”). She has published multiple articles and reports including a report prepared for the American Arbitration Association Task Force on Alternative Dispute Resolution and Mass Tort.

Deborah graduated magna cum laude from the University of Michigan Law School where she served as Senior Editor of the Michigan Law Review and was elected to the Order of the Coif. She is currently Co-Leader of the Energy, Environment and Mass Torts practice at Blank Rome LLP.
