

Michael Hamm-Barnett:

Michael Joined Citizens in 2021. With a diverse career spanning various roles, he brings a wealth of experience to his current position as Catastrophe Operations Manager at Citizens. Michael's ability to navigate different facets of the insurance landscape has contributed to his success in leadership and strategic planning. His dynamic career showcases adaptability and continuous learning, making him a valuable asset in the ever-evolving insurance industry. Michael is set to graduate with an MBA in the Spring of 2024 from Louisiana State University with a concentration in Project management. Michael also holds Xactimate, Lean Practitioner, and Six Sigma Green belt certifications.