

William Hoover is Vice President – Property Claims with Skyward Specialty Insurance. He has 30+ years of experience with roles in legal, claims, underwriting, and leadership at various insurance companies. He has expertise with a variety of coverage lines including first-party property, general and excess liability, construction defect, commercial auto, professional liability and environmental.

William is active with the ABA's Insurance Coverage Litigation Committee, the Property Liability Resource Bureau, and CLM. He is a regular speaker at legal and trade conferences on insurance coverage topics.