

Bob Horst is the Managing Partner of Horst Krekstein & Runyon, a law firm with offices in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Manhattan.

2021 marks Bob's 30th year handling insurance coverage matters, with numerous jury trials to verdict. Bob and his team regularly litigate in his native Philadelphia, while his firm is currently litigating in state and federal courts nationally. First-party property insurance remains his niche.

Bob's service to the industry includes over 6 years as General Counsel to the International Association of Special Investigative Units and its 4,000 worldwide members, along with a term on the National Committee of the Claims and Litigation Management Alliance ("CLM"). His publications and presentations have addressed trial tactics, emerging issues, and include co-authoring/editing the treatise "Extracontractual Litigation Against Insurers." Bob has been named among America's Top 100 Civil Defense Litigators®, regularly recognized as a Best Lawyer®, Super Lawyer® and is rated 10/10 by the national website avvo.com. He has been quoted in The New York Times, Inc. magazine, PropertyCasualty360, Forbes on-line, Law360, National Underwriter magazine, The Legal Intelligencer, Student Lawyer magazine, and The Jackson Clarion Ledger.

This is Bob's fifth PLRB presentation and his 3rd decade doing so.
