

STEVE IRWIN

Executive Vice President - Accident Reconstruction

Steve Irwin is a Founder with Aperture (formerly Scientific Analysis Inc.). Steve founded Scientific Analysis Inc. which would later partner with Aperture. Steve has worked in the field of accident reconstruction for more than 30 years and has investigated thousands of accidents—both for plaintiff and defense attorneys—in the United States, Canada, Mexico, South America, and the Middle East. His expertise includes forensic analysis, recreation, demonstration, and testimony. Steve’s decades of experience mean he is a highly sought-after speaker for industry presentations and continuing education courses.

Steve holds a Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering from the University of Texas at Arlington. While pursuing his degree, he worked as a street and highway engineer. He has completed specialized study in accident reconstruction at the Traffic Institute at Northwestern University and Texas Transportation Institute at Texas A&M University. Steve is a member of many professional societies, including the American Congress on Surveying and Mapping (ACSM), American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), National Association of Professional Accident Reconstruction Specialists (NAPARS), National Society of Professional Surveyors (NSPS), Society of Automotive Engineers (SAE), and the Texas Association of Accident Reconstruction Specialists (TAARS).
