

Tony Kassube is a Casualty Claims Adjuster at Farm Bureau Financial Services. He has 8 years of experience in claims. Prior to claims, Tony was a Chiropractor and worked in personal injury practices for 5 years. Tony has applied his education and expertise to become a subject matter expert at his company for uninsured, underinsured and third party personal and commercial bodily injury claims.

Tony was previously active with the Twin Cities Claim Association Board of Directors. PLRB Boston is his first time participating at PLRB and hopes to do more in the future.
