

Jennie Philip, Esquire is currently a Senior Coverage Director in Coverage & Complex Claims at Chubb. In this role, Jennie manages first party property litigation throughout the country. Prior to that, Jennie spent several years in private practice defending insurers in first party coverage litigation and investigating potential claims of insurance fraud.

Jennie is a frequent national speaker on various topics related to good faith claims handling, first party property and SIU issues.