

Patrick J. Quallich, Esq.

Nationwide Insurance - Associate General Counsel (P&C Legal Operations)

Mr. Quallich is a lawyer and people leader with 25 years of experience in the legal & insurance industries. He has managed claims and litigation in multiple capacities, as an in-house people leader of a Fortune 100's legal staff counsel operations, corporate claims counsel, and private counsel for global corporations, insurance companies, and industry-leading businesses.

Mr. Quallich is Associate General Counsel for Nationwide Insurance within Property & Casualty Legal Operations. He previously served as Managing Trial Attorney at Nationwide. And before coming to Nationwide, Mr. Quallich was a highly accomplished trial attorney and appellate counsel. He served as national coordinating counsel and managed claims and legal matters throughout the United States.

Mr. Quallich is a professionally trained mediator and nationally certified arbitrator. He has had numerous professional speaking engagements, teaching opportunities, and literary contributions on a wide variety of topics, including leadership, insurance, corporate risk management, regulatory compliance, autonomous/emerging vehicle technologies, trial advocacy, complex claims/litigation management, and alternative dispute resolution.

Mr. Quallich is the former Chair the Ohio State Bar Association Insurance Staff Counsel Committee. He has the distinction of having earned an Preeminent (AV) rating by Martindale Hubbell. He is a member of numerous honorary legal organizations, including the Order of Barristers and the Trial Attorneys of America.

Mr. Quallich earned his law degree from Cleveland College of Law (Ohio) and his bachelor's degree from the University of Cincinnati.