

Geoffrey Repo is a partner in the Chicago office of Gordon & Rees and a member of the Commercial Litigation Practice and Insurance Groups. With over 20 years of experience handling complex insurance coverage litigation matters throughout the United States, Mr. Repo is a trusted litigation advisor to all manner of insurers ranging from smaller specialty surplus lines insurers to Fortune 100 insurers.

Mr. Repo has trial, appellate, mediation and arbitration experience in matters involving professional liability, directors and officers, general liability, healthcare, property and fidelity insurance coverage disputes across the country. He has particular experience in the areas of media/cyber liability, professional liability, long-tail property and bodily injury liability, media/cyber liability and construction defect claims. He regularly counsels domestic insurers with respect to coverage evaluation and litigation, claim practices, and has also helped drafted policy language for professional and cyber liability policies for a Fortune 500 insurer.

Mr. Repo is often retained to handle disputes involving bad faith/extra contractual claims. He is a frequent presenter and authority on bad faith topics, and has litigated bad faith claims in jurisdictions across the nation.

Mr. Repo graduated from UCLA in 1995. He received his Juris Doctorate from Boston University School of Law in 1999.