

Biography

Kingshuk Roy, Freeman Mathis & Gary. A fellow with the Construction Lawyers Society of America, an invitation-only honorary society for top construction lawyers, King has almost 20 years of experience representing and advocating on behalf of some of the largest construction companies, motor carriers, and insurers in the nation.

King tackles everything from small litigation matters to some of the largest catastrophic cases in the country, achieving favorable defense verdicts in the most difficult venues in the nation. He has extensive experience conducting post-accident investigations, and contractors frequently call on him to investigate construction sites in the hours following an accident. King defends contractors in OSHA proceedings, construction disputes, and breach of contract claims.

King is a frequent speaker and author on a variety of civil litigation topics, including nuclear verdicts, construction contracts, and judgment calculations at trial. He has held an AV Preeminent Rating from Martindale Hubbell since 2012, was awarded Pro Bono Attorney of the Year by the Champaign County Bar Association, and has been repeatedly named as an Illinois Super Lawyer.
