

Riley Slike joined Great American Insurance Group (Great American) in 2019 as a Specialty Claims Intern. Prior to this he interned for the Cincinnati Insurance Company in the Shareholder Services department. As a Specialty Claims intern at Great American, Riley completed claim handling assignments including initial coverage analysis, first contact, investigation, resolution strategy, and technical letter writing. He also worked with the Claims Operations team to request medical canvasses and complete various assignments in a litigation database.

Riley graduated from the University of Cincinnati, in May 2020, with a Bachelor of Business Administration, double majoring in Finance and Marketing. During his time at the University of Cincinnati, he was a member of Alpha Kappa Psi, a professional co-ed business fraternity. He was also a member of Gamma Iota Sigma, a professional co-ed fraternity organized to promote and encourage student interest in insurance, risk management and actuarial science. Following graduation, he began working full-time at Great American as a Claim Trainee in the Claim Trainee Program.

As a Claim Trainee, Riley completed an extensive eight-month program. He developed the required foundational skills of a successful claim professional including analysis, investigation, and claim handling functions. During this program, Riley earned the Associate in Claims (AIC) designation from The Institutes. Riley joined the AgriBusiness® division at Great American following his graduation from the Claim Trainee Program in February 2021. In May 2021, Riley started pursuing his Master of Science in Risk Management and Insurance from Florida State University.
