

Bernadine Meghan Steines
Amica Mutual Insurance Company
Property Claims Supervisor

Meghan is a graduate of Providence College and was first introduced to Amica during her time as a Future Leaders Program intern during the summer of 2017. She then began her Amica career as part of the June 2018 Future Leaders Program, and after successfully completing that program, Meghan was assigned to the Hartford Regional Office where she worked as a multiline adjuster until stepping into a specialized role as part of the casualty vertical. In 2020, Meghan transferred to Human Resources, working as a Training Instructor at Amica's corporate headquarters in Lincoln, RI. In her role as a Training Instructor, Meghan supervised and developed associate adjuster trainees of the Future Leaders Program in technical skills in property and casualty claim handling. In 2022, Meghan transitioned to her current role as a Property Claims Supervisor in the Denver Regional Office. Her responsibilities are to assist the management of the property claims functions, providing direct supervision over a team of property adjusters and ensuring all claims meet Amica's technical quality and customer service standards. Meghan has earned her CPCU, AIC, AINS, and API designations.
