

Kory began his career with Habitat for Humanity. For five years he worked building homes for underprivileged members of the community. He moved into the insurance world with Brotherhood Mutual, where he worked in customer service and the claims department.

In 2017, he transitioned to Central Mutual Insurance as a claim representative handling personal and commercial claims. He was promoted in 2019 to Senior Claims Representative to handle more complex claims and in 2022 was promoted to Property Supervisor where he currently leads a team of claim adjusters handling claims throughout the Midwest.

Seth Jackson is going to be sending over the presentation materials for our Tenants Improvements and Betterments session. Please let me know if you need anything else from me.
