

Biography

Mr. Beagle is a Senior Principal Scientist and Board-Certified Industrial Hygienist with over 19 years of subject matter expertise regarding the causation, duration and extent of water damage and fungal growth in the built environment. Mr. Beagle also assesses other indoor environmental related concerns including, but not limited to smoke damage and chemical exposure. His diverse experience allows him to assess a variety of different concerns in the built environment. Mr. Beagle is a testifying expert and routinely speaks at conferences and workshops across the country. He is the vice chairman for the IICRC S530 Mold Assessment Standard and is the 1st Vice President of the Indoor Air Quality Association.