

Patrick K. Biggins
Counsel
Property & Liability Resource Bureau

Pat has served as Counsel for the PLRB since 2002. Pat assists members with coverage issues, conducts legal research and writes about liability coverage issues including commercial and business liability, commercial and personal auto liability, and homeowners and farm liability. He is a frequent presenter of liability topics at PLRB Conferences and webinars.

Pat has authored several different kinds of materials found in the PLRB database, including policy annotations, FAQ's, and distance learning modules related to commercial auto, UM/UIM claims and construction issues. Pat is also a frequent contributor to the Liability Coverage Question of the Week feature, which can be accessed from the PLRB home page.

Before joining PLRB, Pat spent several years with Commonwealth Edison/Exelon Corporation, one of the nation's largest utilities, in the Risk Management, Insurance and Claims Departments. Pat also worked as a personal injury litigator with practice in general negligence, medical negligence, products liability, vehicular negligence, and workers compensation. Pat's other experience includes serving as an Arbitrator in the circuit courts of Illinois and as Surety Claims Counsel for CNA.

Pat was admitted to the Illinois Bar and the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois in 1994 and the Florida Bar in 2004. Pat received his J.D. from the John Marshall Law School in Chicago and holds an undergraduate degree in English from Southern Illinois University.
