

Corinne Cable, JD, is a corporate attorney at Brotherhood Mutual Insurance Company. She assists ministries with risk management, focusing on the areas of employment, counseling, safety and security, facility use, and workers' compensation. Cable received her Juris Doctorate and Masters of Business Administration from Valparaiso University and is licensed by the Indiana Supreme Court. Prior to joining Brotherhood Mutual, she worked in insurance defense and civil rights litigation.