

George is a commercial lines Executive General Adjuster (EGA) domiciled in upstate New York with 34 years of adjusting experience. His current position is responsible for the adjustment of complex and high profile commercial losses that are generally in excess of $1.0M. George holds the Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) designation and Associate in Claims (AIC) designation. He is also a licensed adjuster in 17 states. George's past claim handling experiences across a broad spectrum of risk allow him to bring a unique perspective to the management and resolution of complex commercial insurance claims.