

JESSICA FRANKOVICH

Executive Vice President, Custom Property & Inland Marine, Seneca

Jessica Frankovich has just over two decades of experience in property and inland marine underwriting, holding a variety of management positions within this space. Currently Executive Vice President, Custom Property & Inland Marine at Seneca Insurance Co., a Crum & Forster Company, she oversees Seneca's Inland Marine and Custom Property units.

Prior to joining Seneca in 2013, Jessica held underwriting positions at OneBeacon Insurance, Indiana Insurance and The Hanover Insurance Group. She began her career in 2003 as a property underwriter for Liberty Mutual.

Jessica is the Past Chair of the Board of Directors for the Inland Marine Underwriters Association.

She received her BBA in Risk Management and Marketing from the University of Wisconsin, and earned her Master of Business Administration in Finance from DePaul University. Jessica also has her CPCU, AMIM, ARM and ARe designations.