

Patrick F. Kelleher
VP, Investigative Accounting
Meaden & Moore

Experience

Patrick has over two decades of experience working in the area of forensic and investigative accounting field. He has extensive experience in the commercial insurance claims area, evaluating claims of financial damages, including business income, property and fidelity matters ranging from $50,000 to $150 million in damages. Patrick's engagements included a variety of different industries including agriculture, manufacturing, hospitality and construction. As a result of his experience, Patrick has also been involved in a number of litigation support and arbitration engagements where he has provided support and expert testimony. Patrick is also on the advisory board of the Builder's Risk & Construction Symposium.

Education

Providence College, Bachelor of Business Administration,
Boston College, Wallace E. Carroll School of Management, Masters in Business Administration

Professional Organizations

- American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants