

Alexandria (Lexi) May, CPA has over 17 years of forensic accounting experience performing calculations and writing reports regarding business income losses, extra expense analysis, property damage, soft costs analysis, builder's risk losses, inventory losses, and financial motive for a variety of industries including; manufacturing, retail, healthcare, hospitality, agriculture, real estate, apparel, utility, food service, law, education, and religious entities. Analysis of payroll registers, revenue reports, sales records, tax returns, rent rolls, production reports, and profit and loss statements to develop business income losses. Providing forensic and investigative accounting services including litigation support and insurance claim analysis in the following areas:

- Business Income Claims
- Extra Expense Claims
- Property Damage
- Inventory and Contents Claims
- Theft Claims
- Financial Motive Analysis
- Construction Contract Analysis
- Subrogation
- Loss of Profits
- Builder's Risk Analysis
- Lost Wages
- Employee Dishonesty