

Presenter Bio

Nanci Smilie
Litigation Specialist
Erie Insurance

Nanci is a litigation specialist with Erie Insurance, with over 25 years of experience as a litigation, large loss property and multi-line adjuster, handling large and complex residential and commercial property and casualty losses throughout Illinois and the east coast. At Erie, she has held the positions of multi-line adjuster, Property Specialist, and Litigation Specialist since 2004. Prior to Erie, she was a multi-line adjuster for GAB Robins North America.

Nanci is a frequent insurance industry speaker and educator, providing training sessions and speaking at insurance industry conferences across the country on a variety of insurance topics. Nanci holds both CPCU and AIC designations and is on the executive board of the Chicago-West Suburban CPCU Society Chapter as well as the Western Loss Association. She has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Russian Studies with a Business Minor from Illinois State University. Through Illinois State University, she completed a study abroad program with the Vladimir Polytechnic Institute in Vladimir, Russia.