Biography

Mrs. Sturgill has over 20 years' experience in the food and beverage insurance industry. She gathers, reviews, and analyzes insureds' financial records to calculate business interruption losses in the niche market of food & beverage. She also pursues recovery from at-fault parties through subrogation. She also seeks to identify and implement automation and generally improve processes and procedures. Further, she is responsible for insurance premium billings and the related customer service. During her tenure at Illinois Casualty Company (ICC), she began and grew the subrogation recovery and business interruption loss departments.
